

1 From heaven You came, helpless babe, entered our world, Your glory veiled;
not to be served but to serve,
and give Your life that we might live.

*This is our God, the Servant King,
He calls us now to follow Him,
to bring our lives as a daily offering
of worship to the Servant King.*

2 There in the garden of tears my heavy load He chose to bear;
His heart with sorrow was torn,
'Yet not my will but yours,' He said.

*This is our God, the Servant King,
He calls us now to follow Him,
to bring our lives as a daily offering
of worship to the Servant King.*

3 Come see His hands and His feet, the scars that speak of sacrifice, hands that flung stars into space to cruel nails surrendered.

*This is our God, the Servant King,
He calls us now to follow Him,
to bring our lives as a daily offering
of worship to the Servant King.*

4 So let us learn how to serve and in our lives enthrone Him; each other's needs to prefer, for it is Christ we're serving.

*This is our God, the Servant King,
He calls us now to follow Him,
to bring our lives as a daily offering
of worship to the Servant King.*

1 To God our great salvation a triumph-song we raise, with hymns of adoration and everlasting praise.

That Name beyond all naming,
from age to age adored, we lift on high, proclaiming the greatness of the Lord.

2 Declare in song and story the wonders we confess, who hail the King of glory
the Lord our righteousness.
In loving kindness caring His mercies stand displayed, forgiving and forbearing to all His hand has made.

3 His kingdom knows no ending, enthroned in light sublime, His sovereign power extending beyond all space and time.
To us and all things living He comes in word and deed, forbearing and forgiving,
to meet us in our need.

4 The King of all creation is near to those who call;
the God of our salvation has stooped to save us all.
Lift high your hearts and voices,
His praises sound again;
in God His earth rejoices for evermore. Amen!

Oh how good it is
When the family of God
Dwells together in spirit
In faith and unity.
Where the bonds of peace,
Of acceptance and love
Are the fruit of His presence Here among us.

*So with one voice we'll sing to the Lord
And with one heart we'll live out His word Till the whole earth sees
The Redeemer has come For He dwells in the presence of His people.*

Oh how good it is
On this journey we share
To rejoice with the happy
And weep with those who mourn.
For the weak find strength
The afflicted find grace
When we offer the blessing
Of belonging.

Oh how good it is
To embrace His command
To prefer one another Forgive as He forgives.
When we live as one
We all share in the love
Of the Son with the Father
And the Spirit.

I'm gonna let it shine
This little light of mine,
I'm gonna let it shine
This little light of mine,
I'm gonna let it shine
Let it shine, Let it shine, Let it shine.

Hide it under a bushel? No!
I'm gonna let it shine
Hide it under a bushel? No!
I'm gonna let it shine
Hide it under a bushel? No!
I'm gonna let it shine
Let it shine, Let it shine, Let it shine.

Don't let Satan blow it out,

Don't let Satan blow it out,

1 I will offer up my life in spirit and truth, pouring out the oil of love as my worship to You.
In surrender I must give my every part;
Lord, receive the sacrifice of a broken heart.

*Jesus, what can I give,
what can I bring to so faithful a friend, to so loving a king?
Saviour, what can be said, what can be sung as a praise of Your name for the things You have done?
Oh, my words could not tell,
not even in part, of the debt of love that is owed by this thankful heart.*

2 You deserve my every breath for You've paid the great cost;
giving up Your life to death, even death on a cross.
You took all my shame away, there defeated my sin,
opened up the gates of heaven, and have beckoned me in.

Jesus, what can I give,.....
